Arizona State Senate

January 17, 2012

Dear Participants of the Indian Nations and Tribes Legislative Day,

As President of the Arizona State Senate, it is my honor to welcome you to Indian Nations and Tribes Legislative Day at the State Capitol.

This annual event is an important reminder of the relationship between the state and its tribal communities and serves as a catalyst for facilitating communication and understanding between state and tribal leaders. It is also an opportunity to celebrate and honor the history, customs, cultures, and traditions of our state's Indian nations and tribes.

As your host, I hope you'll take this opportunity to meet and become acquainted with those state lawmakers who represent you and your tribal members. Make them aware of the challenges and opportunities facing your communities and take time to engage in a dialogue with them.

With Arizona celebrating its centennial this year, it's more important than ever for state and tribal leaders to maintain a strong and positive relationship that will benefit our shared constituents.

It's my hope that this year's Tribal Day will help make that possible.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in blue ink that reads "Steve Pierce". The signature is stylized with a large, flowing "P" and "S".

January 3, 2012

Dear Participants of Indian Nations and Tribes Legislative Day,

I want to personally welcome you to the Arizona Legislature and the 17th Annual Indian Nations and Tribal Legislative Day. I'm honored to join you in this event and want to thank each of you for the time, dedication and travel you have committed from all around our great State of Arizona to celebrate in this continued partnership.

Maintaining and strengthening the relationship between the State of Arizona with the tribes and the native people who reside and work here is imperative as we begin a New Year. Our state is facing one of the most difficult economic times during its history but I feel confident that as we enter this new Legislative Centennial Session together we will find solutions to many of the challenges facing us today.

Again, welcome to the Arizona Legislature and thank you for all your hard work and the contributions you make to the economy of Arizona.

Sincerely,

GUEST SPEAKER BIOGRAPHIES

FRANCIS-BEGAY, KAREN

Karen Francis-Begay is the Special Advisor to the President on Native American Affairs at The University of Arizona (UA). She serves as a key liaison between Native Nations and the University to advance mutual goals and strengthen partnerships. Previously, Karen was the Director for Native American Student Affairs where she developed the First-Year Scholars Program, a living-learning community for Native students that has resulted in increased retention rates. In addition to her work at the UA, Karen serves on several community and national boards to advance the voice and representation of Native peoples. She is a trustee with the College Board and is on the Board of Directors with the Hopi Education Endowment Fund and College Horizons. Karen has a Bachelor of Science degree in Public Administration and a Master of Arts degree in American Indian Studies from the UA, and she just began her Ph.D. program in Higher Education. Karen is Navajo originally from Chinle, Arizona.

LEONARD, LUANN

Regent Leonard is the first Native American to be appointed to the Arizona Board of Regents by then Governor Napolitano in January 2008. She currently chairs the Regents Award Selection Committee, Vice Chair of the Academic Affairs and System Architecture Committee, Native American Initiatives and Co-Chair of the Financial Aid Task Force. She is also a member of the Public Outreach and Legislative Affairs and the Governance Committees. Leonard is the Executive Director of the Hopi Education Endowment Fund (HEEF), which provides educational opportunities for the Hopi people. Prior to her work with HEEF, Regent Leonard spent more than 22 years working with the Hopi Tribe in positions ranging from Higher Education Counselor, Higher Education Director and Director of Youth Affairs, to serving as an Assistant to the Chairman of the Tribe focusing on health and human service issues. Leonard participates in several academic and professional organizations such as the Arizona Tri-Universities for Indian Education (ATUIE), Native Americans in Philanthropy and the Arizona Women's Forum. An NAU Alum, Regent Leonard resides in Polacca, Arizona. She is a descendant of the Tohono O'odham Nation and is of the Alwungwa (Deer) Clan from the Village of Sichomovi. Leonard's husband, Bernard, is an elementary school teacher, and they have two children- Nicole and Joaquin.

LEWIS, SHAN

Shan Lewis serves as the Vice-Chairman of the Fort Mojave Indian Tribe. He has been reelected into this position and is currently serving his eighth year. Vice-Chairman Lewis worked several years within the Fort Mojave Tribe in the Public Relations and Education Departments. Mr. Lewis is also a Veteran of the United States Armed Forces, where he proudly served in the United States Army. The Vice-Chairman is a strong advocate for the Inter Tribal Council of Arizona and has been active in the organization for several years. Currently Mr. Lewis serves as the President of the Inter Tribal Council of Arizona Association. The Vice-Chairman was elected into this position by fellow Tribal Leaders in Arizona and has been serving in this capacity for four years. On several occasions Mr. Lewis has been called to testify in Congress on behalf of Tribes in Arizona with great success and professionalism. Vice-Chairman Lewis stands by his many accomplishments as a Tribal Leader and looks forward to continuing his efforts advocating for the wellbeing for all American Indians.

MENDOZA, GREGORY

Gregory Mendoza, 46, is the 21st Governor of the Gila River Indian Community and the youngest elected to this office. He is the son of Joseph Mendoza and the late-Brenda Mendoza. His maternal grandparents are the late Matthew Gibson and Myra Davis-Darrell of Vah-Ki Village and his paternal grandparents are the late Jose Angel Mendoza and Amelia Gonzales-Mendoza of Goodyear Village and resides in the village of Valin Thak (Goodyear) located in District Four of the Gila River Indian Community. Gregory served on the Community Council for the Gila River Indian Community for seven months prior to being elected Governor. He was elected to Council while serving as Chief of Staff to Governor William R. Rhodes, a position he held for almost six years. While on the Community Council, he was appointed as Chairman of the Education Standing Committee and a member of the Legislative Standing Committee. He became interested in politics while teaching government fundamentals to multiple generations of youth as the Co-founder and Director to the nationally-recognized Akimel O'odham/Pee-Posh Youth Council. He holds an Associate Degree in Tribal Management and Bachelor of Science Degree in Business Administration. He also serves on non-profit boards that specialize in education, youth development, advocacy and public policy services for tribal government and non-profit organizations. Mendoza is currently a member of the Council of Trustees for United National Indian Tribal Youth, Inc. (UNITY) and member of the Native American Advisory Board for the Maricopa County Community College District (MCCCD). He served on the Board of Directors for Gila River Boys and Girls Clubs Auxiliary, Gila River Fair & Rodeo Commission, Gila River News Editorial Board, Kids Voting Arizona, Boys and Girls Clubs of the East Valley, Mesa Arts Academy, Vechij Himdag MashchamakuD, Maricopa Association of Governments, Youth Policy Advisory Committee and National Indian Education Association. Gregory has spent his entire professional life in community service, is dedicated to promoting education for the Gila River Indian Community and in creating new opportunities for youth to flourish within the Community. He avidly supports building an environment, in which our people can thrive and achieve a stronger sense of self-worth as individuals, who can then reach a higher level of health and wellness and therefore become more actively engaged in building a stronger and healthier community. In 1986, Gregory was named as one of the Outstanding Young Men of America and is the 1987 recipient of the Congressional Gold Medal for academic achievement and service. He is an active member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

MOORE, JACOB

Jacob Moore is a partner in Generation Seven Strategic Partners, LLC. (G7SP) Generation Seven specializes in government relations, public affairs, and economic development. G7SP recently incorporated a new business, Generation Seven Tribal Energy. Jacob also serves as the Tribal Relations Coordinator for the Arizona State University Office of Public Affairs and coordinates the Tribal Government Leadership Forum, which is an annual program for newly elected and experienced tribal leaders. Mr. Moore sits on the Board of Directors for the Tohono O'odham Gaming Enterprise and WestEd and is also a member of the Arizona State Board of Education, where he previously served as both President and Vice President. Mr. Moore previously worked as an Economic Development Analyst and Special Assistant on Congressional and Legislative for the Salt River Pima-Maricopa Indian Community, and had a 14-year career in retail banking with Valley National Bank, United Bank of Arizona, Citibank, and Norwest Bank. Jacob Moore holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Finance and an Executive MBA, both from Arizona State University's W.P. Carey College of Business. Mr. Moore is Tohono O'odham, Akimel O'odham, Lakota, and Dakota and is an enrolled member of the Tohono O'odham Nation. "Jake" resides in the Salt River Pima-Maricopa Indian Community with his wife, Carmelita, and granddaughter, Sistine.

NORRIS, DEBORA

Debora Norris is Director of the Arizona Department of Education's Office of Indian Education. Debora is an enrolled member of the Navajo Nation. She is a former member of the Arizona House of Representatives, having served for three terms from 1997-2002. She is one of the first two Native American women elected at the same time to serve in the Arizona Legislature in 1996 (the other one is Sally Gonzales from the Pascua Yaqui Tribe). She has a background in Education policy and legislation from having served on the Arizona House of Representatives Education Committee for four years. Debora grew up in Sells, Arizona on the Tohono O'odham Nation. She graduated from Baboquivari High School in 1989. Four years later she graduated from Stanford University in Palo Alto, California in 1993 with a B.A. in History and a minor Education. In 2006 Debora graduated with her Master's in Education Administration from Grand Canyon University in Phoenix, Arizona. Debora has worked with many Arizona Tribes, reservation school districts, and urban school districts with high Native American enrollment on public policy and education issues. In addition, she continues to work on Education issues in the Native American community and provides advocacy and technical assistance with NCLB, AZ LEARNS, AIMS, Title I, Title VII, and JOM. Ms. Norris is the first Director appointed under the Arizona Indian Education Act to implement A.R.S. 15-244, the state law that officially establishes the Office of Indian Education within the Arizona Department of Education. Debora is also the appointed tribal liaison to the Arizona Department of Education by Superintendent of Public Instruction Tom Horne.

RUSSELL, BEVERLY

Beverly Russell is the Tribal Liaison at First Things First. Prior to her current position, she worked to improve the health of Indian people for a culmination of fifteen years. Her experience includes the coordination of two urban Indian health programs within the American Indian Community House (AICH) of New York City. Ms. Russell was selected to participate in the inaugural class of the Kaiser Family Foundation Native American Health Policy Fellows program. Through this fellowship award she was placed as a legislative assistant at the United States Senate Committee on Indian Affairs. During the 106th Congress, she performed the staff work for Senator Daniel K. Inouye on health care, and census issues that affect American Indians, Alaskan Natives and Native Hawaiians. Her primary focus at the committee was the re-authorization of the Indian Health Care Improvement Act. She later went on to become the Executive Director of the National Council of Urban Indian Health in Washington, DC. Beverly is a member of the San Carlos Apache Tribe and was born and raised on the San Carlos Apache Reservation. Ms. Russell is proud graduate of Seton Hall University in South Orange, NJ. Currently, Beverly serves as a board member for the National Indian Women's Health Resource Center and Common Health Action, a national organization dedicated to helping communities achieve optimal health through community generated solutions. In 2005, Ms. Russell was identified by the Smithsonian Institute National Museum of the American Indian as one of seven Native American standouts who represent the promising future of Indian people. Most recently she received the prestigious Mary Eliza Mahoney Award, an honor given to individuals or organizations for outstanding contributions to improving access to health care in minority communities.

SHELLY, BEN

Ben Shelly is the first sitting Vice President to be elected President of the Navajo Nation. Sworn into office on January 11, 2011, President Shelly leads the Navajo Nation with agenda of economic prosperity, technology, open government, health, and education. After serving as a Navajo Nation Council Delegate for sixteen years and four years as Vice President in the Shirley-Shelly Administration, Ben Shelly was sworn in as President of the Navajo Nation on January 11, 2011. President Shelly was born in Thoreau, New Mexico. He is of the Tó'aheedlínii clan born for Ts'ah Yísk'idnii. His maternal grandfather is Ashiihi and his paternal grandfather is Totinii. His wife of 45 years, First Lady Martha Shelly, is from Coyote Canyon. She is Tábaahí and born for Tódich'ii'nii. Together they have five children and 10 grandchildren. The President first began his service to the Navajo people in 1991 as a Council Delegate representing Thoreau Chapter. As a member of the Transportation and Intergovernmental Relations Committees, and chairman of the Budget and Finance Committee, he also served for 12 years as a McKinley County Commissioner. Before returning to the Navajo Nation in 1976, President Shelly lived in Chicago, Illinois for 16 years, working for a heavy equipment company as a supervisor. He owned and operated a fleet maintenance and mechanic shop in Thoreau, before being elected to public office. The President remains influential and active in state and national politics. He works closely with tribal leaders in asserting sovereignty, nation building for tribes, and progressive development for tomorrow's prosperity.

Arizona Commission of Indian Affairs

Pursuant to A.R.S. § 41-542, the Commission shall assist and support state and federal agencies in assisting Indians and tribal councils in this state to develop mutual goals, to design projects for achieving goals and to implement their plans.

The commission shall also:

- 1) Assemble and make available facts needed by tribal, state and federal agencies to work together effectively.
- 2) Assist this state in its responsibilities to Indians and tribes of this state by making recommendations to the governor and the legislature.
- 3) Confer and coordinate with officials and agencies of other governmental units and legislative committees regarding Indian needs and goals.
- 4) Work for greater understanding and improved relationships between Indians and non-Indians by creating an awareness of the legal, social and economic needs of Indians in this state.
- 5) Promote increased participation by Indians in local and state affairs.
- 6) Assist tribal groups in developing increasingly effective methods of self-government.
- 7) Assist urban Indians.
