Dear Participants of the Indian Nations and Tribes Legislative Day:

As we embark on our State's Centennial, we recognize how far Arizona has come. The tribal communities are deeply embedded in our success and our history.

I am deeply committed to maintaining and developing the strong relationships between the State and its tribal communities. As you participate in this event, I encourage you to engage your elected officials. Only through these open conversations can our State continue to meet challenges in the future and achieve greatness.

As the President of the Senate, let me formally welcome you to the Legislature. I hope that this event will help further the goals and interests we both share. We are honored to have you and look forward to working with you this legislative session!

Sincerely,

Dear Participants of Indian Nations and Tribes Legislative Day,

As Speaker of the Arizona House of Representatives, I want to personally welcome you to the Arizona Legislature and the 16th Annual Indian Nations and Tribal Legislative Day. I am honored to participate in this event and want to thank each of you for the time, dedication and travel from all around our great State of Arizona to celebrate in this continued partnership.

Maintaining and strengthening the relationship between the State of Arizona with the tribes and the native people who reside and work here is imperative as we begin a New Year. Our state is facing one of the most difficult economic times during its history but I feel confident that as we enter this new legislative session together we will find solutions to many of the challenges facing us.

Again, welcome to the Arizona Legislature and thank you for all your hard work and the contributions you make to the economy of Arizona.

Sincerely,

Arizona Commission of Indian Affairs

MISSION

To enhance communication and build sustainable relationships between tribal entities and the State of Arizona

GUIDING PRINCIPLES

- ❖ Encourage a spirit of cooperation to guide the continuing government-to-government relationship between the State of Arizona and Tribal Nations and Communities located in Arizona;
- ❖ Ensure meaningful and timely consultation with Tribal Leaders to facilitate better understanding, informed decision making, and intergovernmental cooperation;
- ❖ Promote and support access to economic, infrastructure and regulatory resources
- ❖ Establish a spirit of cooperation and collaboration among state agency tribal liaison's in order to share ideas, address needs and effectively implement the mandates outlined in EO 2006-14
- ❖ Ensure that state services and resources are available to all eligible state citizens residing in Arizona tribal communities to the same extent that such services are available to all other eligible state citizens.

GOALS

- ❖ Facilitate communication between tribal entities (both public and private), elected state officials, and other state agencies
- ❖ Establish and maintain relationships between the State of Arizona and the 22 Indian Tribes
- ❖ Act as an informational clearinghouse and reference desk
- ❖ Promote Economic and Community Development Programs

* Members with Tribes in their district

The Commission of Indian Affairs would like to thank this year's sponsors. Without their generosity Indian Nations and Tribes Legislative Day would not be possible.
