Tribal Annual Report October 6, 2021

Industrial Commission of Arizona (ICA) Mission Statement:

Efficiently administer and effectively oversee all applicable laws related to the protection of the life, health, safety, and welfare of employees within the state.

Tribal Consultation Activities:

- When requested, the Industrial Commission of Arizona, through the Arizona Division of Occupational Safety and Health (ADOSH), will continue to work collaboratively with businesses on Tribal lands to improve workplace safety through ADOSH's consultative services.

GOAL	OBJECTIVE	ACTIVITY AND PERFORMANCE MEASURES
The ICA will work collaboratively with businesses on Tribal lands when invited by the appropriate Tribal officials.	The ICA recognizes the sovereignty of Tribal governments and their jurisdiction over Tribal lands as defined by federal law.	The ICA did not make any visits to Tribal lands.

Revisions to Tribal Consultation Policy:

There have been no revisions to the Industrial Commission of Arizona's Tribal Consultation Policy.

The Industrial Commission of Arizona recognizes the sovereignty of Tribal governments and their jurisdiction over Tribal lands as defined by federal law. The definition in federal law includes all lands within reservation boundaries [18 U.S.C.A. 1151].

The Industrial Commission of Arizona recognizes that the federal government has the primary responsibility for assisting Tribes to regulate and manage workplace safety and labor laws within tribal lands. The ICA is committed to developing cooperative relationships with the Tribes.
