

Arizona State Land Department Tribal Outreach and Activities Annual Report July 1, 2020 to June 30, 2021

AGENCY OVERVIEW

The Arizona State Land Department (ASLD) manages the use and disposition of State Trust Land (STL) for 13 Public Beneficiaries in accordance with the Arizona Constitution, the Enabling Act of 1912, and Arizona Revised Statutes. ASLD serves as a fiduciary and agent for the more than 9 million acres of STL and its natural resources that were granted at statehood to fund the 13 Public Beneficiaries in perpetuity. With this mission, the ASLD is a unique State agency, without regulatory purview or the ability to place other interests in advance of its Constitutional mandate.

TRIBAL CONSULTATION POLICY

ASLD staff, in accordance with federal, state, and tribal laws, will coordinate their efforts with tribal representatives where appropriate, or when formally requested by Tribal officials. Consultation and coordination includes reasonable efforts by ASLD staff to ensure that tribal coordination and compliance is conducted within the normal pursuit of their work duties. The primary nexus for Tribal consultation involves ASLD responsibilities related to the management of cultural resources on STL.

ASLD-TRIBAL CONSULTATION ACTIVITIES
Goal	Objective	Activity and Performance Measure
Correspondence with applicable tribal governments when appropriate for certain Department actions involving cultural resources	To foster trust and a working relationship with all Tribes in Arizona	Consultation with tribal governments when applicable under federal, state, or local statute
Work with Tribes on pending grazing and agricultural lease renewals, and provide continued customer service to Tribes on existing leases	Facilitate respectful and productive assistance to active and prospective Tribal customers	Continued, respectful proprietary relationship between the Tribes and ASLD's Range and Agriculture Sections

PRIMARY TRIBAL TRANSACTIONS WITH ASLD

ASLD coordinates and consults with Tribal offices throughout the State and with select non-resident Tribes that have cultural affiliations with areas in Arizona. Coordination and consultation primarily occur in relation ASLD’s responsibilities involving the management of cultural resources that could be affected by applications to permit use of STL for grazing, minerals extraction, transportation or utilities rights of way, or other purposes. The State Historic Preservation Office’s Consultation Toolkit is used to identify the appropriate Tribes with which to consult depending on
